Arista

Brad Paisley's "Bucked Off" is off and running as Paisley will be back on the road this year, while Walker Hayes continues to win fans with "90's Country." VP/Promotion Josh Easler says the song is "showing great signs in consumption." Look for Hayes on his headlining tour in Q1. Reaction continues for Seth Ennis' "Call Your Mama" featuring Little Big Town. Ennis is touring with Dylan Scott in 2019. "We're excited about the foundation Carlton Anderson is making with fans and Country radio," says Easler. "He will be back with a new single in Q1. Lastly, thank you for an amazing year for Lanco. They are in the studio making new music and will be back early next year, touring with Luke Combs. We hope to see you at a show!"

Average Joes

Newly signed Sam Grow will deliver a full-length album during the first quarter and Lenny Cooper will also release a new project. Look for a new single from singer/songwriter Carter Winter from his current album Temptation. Additionally, Sr. Dir./Business

Adam
Wakefield

Development & Marketing Nathan Thompson reports singer/songwriter Adam Wakefield – one of Pandora's 2019 Country Artists to Watch – will also have new songs in Q1. The label's top-selling compilation series Mud in the Club V2 is also set for release next quarter.

Awal/In2une

Duo Smithfield will have a new single in late January/early February. The first country single from AJ McLean, "Night Visions," is out in January. Sundance Head continues with his first single, "Leave Her Wild." "And a bonus for In2une – we are proud to be partnering with Good Company Entertainment's Keith Gale and Barry Weiss on the Matt Stell single 'Prayed for You,'" says VP/Promo/Mgt. Jamice Jennings.

Big Big Entertainment

GM Jim Chesser says Eric Chesser will be part of the main stage lineup at the Country Fest, Lakes Jam and Kicker Country Stampede festivals. He's also in the studio working on a new project. Recent Iowa Rock N' Roll Country Music Hall of Fame inductee Johnny Rogers will begin his 2019 tour in Florida.

Big Label

Aaron Watson's new single "Kiss That Girl Goodbye" will launch in January. Written by Watson, it's the lead single from Red Bandana, coming out in June. "It's a hook-laden, uptempo break-up song from a guy's point of view and everyone who has heard the roughs has been blown away," says Label Head Tony Morreale. "Red Bandana was produced by Jordan Lehning, may contain as many as 20 Watson-penned songs and will cut a wide swath stylistically and sonically. We are also stepping up the search for a new artist with a great work ethic and a musical vision to join the label and grow with us."

Big Loud

Look for a new album from Jake Owen in late Q1. "It will be his debut first full album with Big Loud," says Pres. Clay Hunnicutt, "including 'I Was Jack (You Were Diane),' 'Down To The Honkytonk' and 'Made For You.'" Owen just wrapped the USA Network series Real Country; he'll tour extensively and release new singles throughout 2019. New artist Hardy will release his four-song second EP Jan. 18. This follows his debut EP This Ole Boy, championed by SiriusXM and featuring "Redneck" and "Throwback," released in October and streamed more than 1.8 million times. Find Hardy on the road in 2019 with Florida Georgia Line and label mate Morgan Wallen.

Big Machine

"The first quarter of 2019 is all about new," says VP/Promo Kris Lamb, who teases a new album from Midland in March, following their latest single "Burn Out." "We're amped for the opportunity to double down and give consumers new music from the reigning ACM New Group of the Year." Carly Pearce continues with her single "Closer To You" from her upcoming sophomore album. "I truly believe Carly is the

Capitol

"Luke Bryan continues to blow up the charts, as the title cut from What Makes You Country went Top 20 in just a few weeks and is poised to be his fourth No. 1 from the album," says VP/Promotion Bobby Young. As of this writing, Carrie Underwood's "Love Wins" from her first Capitol album Cry Pretty is closing in on Top 20. She'll be on the road with the Cry Pretty Tour in 2019. "We're proud to have her in the Capitol family," says Young. Keith Urban's "Never Comin' Down" is climbing and Graffiti U continues to sell, consistently posting Top 5 sales numbers. Dierks Bentley's "Burning Man" featuring Brothers Osborne is already Top 10. He'll take labelmate Jon Pardi along for the ride on his Burning Man Tour next year through November. Adam Hambrick's "Rockin' All Night Long" recently debuted as he continues his radio tour throughout the first quarter. "His songs reflect a fresh and curious outlook on life and relationships," says Young. "The project stands on its own and early feedback from programmers is excellent! I believe this single will position Adam as a trendsetter in the format." Jon Pardi is looking for "Night Shift" to follow in the steps of his three previous chart-topping singles from California Sunrise. Little Big Town have been busy working on their new album and will launch a new tour in February. "Caylee Hammack was one of the most sought-after new artists in Nashville last year – and I'm proud and excited to say Capitol won," reports Young. "I believe, without a doubt, she's going to have a long-standing presence in our format." Look for her on radio tour in February and listen for a single in April.

Cold River/Placer Music

It's a busy new year for Dylan Schneider, who continues his chart climb with debut single "How Does It Sound." "We cannot wait to get this new Drew Baldrige music out to radio," says VP/Promotion Jim Dandy. "He has taken his time and brought us at least four separate songs worthy of hit status." Look for the first single from that new project in Q1. Says SVP John Ettinger, "We are so excited to announce the signing of Alabama native Sara Stearman. She places her heart in the middle of every song. Her words stun you and her melodies compel. Think Joni Mitchell in the age of Gaga and Swift." Dandy adds, "The Cold River team has new offices on Music Row and they plan to host radio and industry events there starting around CRS. We might just recreate our immensely successful CMA-week rookie party for West Coast rep Jenna Johnson. We can't honor her and this awesome team enough."

hardest working artist in country music," says Lamb, pointing to her 2018 opening slots for Blake Shelton, Rascal Flatts, Thomas Rhett and Luke Bryan, and her upcoming co-headlining tour with Russell Dickerson and a TBA national tour. Rascal Flatts will be releasing new tracks in Q1 and throughout the year. The label will also be introducing newcomers Lauren Jenkins, Dan Smalley and Josh Phillips.

Black River

SVP/Radio Promotion Mike Wilson says Kelsea Ballerini's "Miss Me More" is on fire and will continue to be in the first half of 2019. "We will have new music from Abby Anderson in the first quarter," he adds. "She's busy writing and recording now. I know Country radio is going to be really excited about the new music she's putting together."

BMLG Records

Riley Green's debut single "There Was This Girl" has already cracked Top 20 and continues to climb. Green just wrapped his fall 40-city headline tour, will announce another headline tour for Q1, and has a major tour reveal for the summer. Brett Young's "Here Tonight," from new album Ticket To LA, continues to climb, while he sells out dates on his current CMT Here Tonight Headline Tour and preps to hit the road with Kelsea Ballerini in early 2019. Florida Georgia Line's "Talk You Out Of It" follows their 16th No. 1 "Simple." "The duo is currently holding court with their Las Vegas residency," says SVP/Promotion Matthew Hargis, "while they gear up for their fourth album launch in February."

Broken Bow

"It'll be a 'Girl Like You' first quarter for Jason Aldean when his wife Brittany delivers their baby girl, Navy," says VP/Promo Lee Adams. Rearview Town has spent a dozen weeks at No. 1 and netted the three-time ACM Entertainer Of The Year three big hits with more to come. Dustin Lynch's "Good Girl" climbs the charts just in time for the Very Hot Summer Tour with Thomas Rhett, May through October. With nearly 65 million US streams, "Eyes On You" is proving to be one of the biggest hits of Chase Rice's career so far. "Look for duo Everette to take their swampy, grassroots, Kentucky sound to new levels with new music in the first quarter," adds Adams.

Tenille Townes

Columbia

New music from Columbia includes Tim McGraw's "Neon Church" and Luke Combs' "Beautiful Crazy" from his platinum This One's For You Too. "Tenille Townes' thought-provoking "Somebody's Daughter" will continue to establish her authenticity at radio while she climbs the charts and heads out on tour with Dierks Bentley," says SVPP Shane Allen. "Be prepared to be blown away by new music from Maren Morris and Mitchell Tenpenny's 'Alcohol You Later,' the follow-up to his debut gold smash 'Drunk Me.'"

Curb

"Rodney Atkins continues toward Top 30 with 'Caught Up In The Country' and we're seeing exceptionally strong consumption to back up our belief that this fun, uptempo tune will absolutely work at radio," says VP/Promo RJ Meacham. "Lee Brice delivers hit songs, period. 'Rumor' is no different and we've got the numbers to prove it. Nearly 40 million streams already, gold on the horizon, and we're just closing in on Top 40." Everything is new for Dylan Scott – single "Nothing To Do Town," impacting Jan. 14, a 17-city tour and an EP slated for April. "We're all looking forward to building on a phenomenal 2018 and taking Dylan to the next level in the new year!" says Meacham.

EMI Nashville

Brandon Lay is leaving an impression with "Yada Yada Yada." "If you saw him on the Trip Around The Sun Tour, you know this guy has a bright future as an all-around entertainer," says VP/Promotion Jimmy Rector. "With a song that connects to everyone, he has it all: poise, good looks and great lyrics." Jon Langston may be a new artist, but he already boasts a fan base with 160 million lifetime streams and more than 40 million lifetime views. His new single "When It Comes To Loving You" already has 9.5 million streams and landed at radio in September. Three-time reigning CMA and two-time ACM Vocal Duo of the Year Brothers Osborne have a new single "I Don't Remember Me (Before You)," showing their softer side. Look for them on their headlining world tour, kicking off in January. Eric Church starts January with new music as new single "Some Of It" ships to radio, while Gary Allan and Alan Jackson are working hard in the studio.

Forge Entertainment Group

Lucas Hoge's new single will be released in early 2019 as he opens both his US and UK tours. Look for an EP later in the year. "Lucas' partnerships just keep growing," says Pres./CEO Laura Lynn, "adding GSM Outdoors and Purity and Grace along with Southwest Airlines, Taylor Guitars, Uncle Nearest Whiskey, Bass Pro/Cabela's, Wrangler and Gamble Family Vineyards."

GrassRoots

James Dupre's "Drunk Right Now" will ship at the end of Q1, while Ryan Sims' "Get Away" will continue its journey up the charts in January following a late fourth quarter ship. Irish singer/multi-instrumentalist Mags debuts with "Run" as new music from Shenandoah, Larry Stewart and Shane Owens also hits the charts. "The GrassRoots Management division is also excited about client Aaron Goodvin signing with Reviver Records following multiple Top 10 hits and a platinum single in Canada," says Managing Partner Nancy Tunick. Goodvin's US album releases in February and new single "Bars And Churches" ships to radio in February for an early second quarter airplay date. Adds Tunick, "Our artists and team look forward to seeing everyone at CRS for our annual Starlight Dinner at The Patron Club in Bridgestone Arena on the first night of the seminar following the opening reception and performance."

Aaron Goodvin

MCA

VP/Promotion Katie Dean reports Kip Moore's "Last Shot" will peak in January prior to the start of his spring acoustic tour, while Jordan Davis continues his march up the chart with "Take It From Me." George Strait is in the studio with new music expected in the first half of the new year and Kassi Ashton and Sam Hunt are also working on new music for 2019.

Mercury

Coming off of three big wins at the CMA Awards in November, VPP Damon Moberly says Chris Stapleton's "Millionaire" continues to test well as it heads toward the top. Look for new albums from Travis Denning, Maddie & Tae, Billy Currington and Lauren Alaina while their current singles – "David Ashley Parker From Powder Springs," "Friends Don't," "Bring It On Over" and "Ladies In The 90's," respectively – climb the charts.

Nine North

The first quarter will bring the follow-up to Canadian/Chilean artist Flo's current single "Sincerely, Not Really," as well as a new song from Abi after her debut "A Day Without." "We'll continue to be hard at work on debut singles from Isabella Stefania and Abby Stephens, so it's going to be a packed Q1," says Pres. Larry Pareigis. "Speaking of, we wish Country radio the best winter book ever. May the broadcasting gods smile on you and your tower(s)!"

Pearl

"The stage is set for 2019 to be a massive year for Garth Brooks and Pearl Records," says GM Lesly Simon. "After the inaugural stadium show at Notre Dame and the CBS primetime special memorializing the historic night, The Garth Brooks Stadium Tour kicks off 2019 with early stops in St Louis, Phoenix, Pittsburgh and The University of Florida." Additional dates on the three-year trek are TBA. In addition to the tour and recently released Anthology III: Live!, Brooks has a new studio album on the way and a new single from it, "Stronger Than Me," which he premiered on the CMA Awards.

Quarterback

Farewell Angelina will release their self-produced EP Women & Wine Jan. 25 and the title track is already getting positive feedback at radio. The independent release will be a partnership between Quarterback and their newly formed FAM Records. "The powerhouse all-female group consists of longtime members Nicole Witt, Andrea Young and Lisa Torres," says Pres. Chris Allums, "and they recently welcomed newest member Ashley Gearing." The group kicks off their Women And Wine Tour Part II Jan. 5 visiting more than 25 markets nationally throughout the spring before heading to Europe for a summer tour. Also look for Mark Leach's "Proof," the debut single from his new album Where I Wanna Be.

RCA

Jan. 7 will be the impact date for Kane Brown's new single; three days later he'll kick off his sold-out tour. Next up will be the first single from the new Chris Young album, impacting Jan. 28. Ryan Hurd's "To A T" hits Feb. 11. "Sirius/XM's The Highway has led the charge on this song with huge success," says SVP/Promo Dennis Reese. "Ryan will perform four sold-out shows in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and Nashville in early 2019." Singles continuing to rise in the new year include CMA winners Old Dominion's "Make It Sweet," Pistol Anni's "Got My Name Changed Back" and Rachel Wammack's "Damage." Adds Reese, "Be on the lookout for our newest signing, duo Seaforth."

Rebel Engine

CMT Next Women of Country artist Stephanie Quayle will release a new single in Q1. "With the success of last year's 'Selfish,' we are thrilled to share that we are expanding our promotion team," says VP Carli McLaughlin. "Jay Bradley and EJ Bernas will join David Shaw and Chris Borchetta in making this a monumental campaign for Quayle and Rebel Engine."

Red Star

As Denny Strickland's current single "Don't You Wanna" rings in the new year, Strickland will be releasing another version of the song with an unexpected collaboration. "And just as listeners' ears welcome the new version, the video is sure to open some eyes as well," says the label's Neal Kring. "This will definitely be one to check out."

Reviver/1608

"Resolve abounds and continues into the new year," says SVP/Promotion Bob Reeves, "with CMA winner David Lee Murphy's 'I Won't Be Sorry' and Michael Tyler's 'Remember These Words' – which I'm still 100% certain will become the engagement/wedding song of the summer!" The Bachelor fans will spot Tenille Arts on the show in January, helping drive her "I Hate This" up the charts, while Haley & Michaels' "Taking Off" will impact Jan. 28 as they wrap their radio tour and get into spring and summer touring mode. 1608's Josh Gracin's single

Waterloo Revival

remains "Good For You" into 2019. 1608 & Reviver will also drop Aaron Goodvin's new album as well as ship his debut single "Bars And Churches" in mid-February (with an April 1 impact date). Catch Goodvin on radio tour mid-February through April.

Show Dog

Toby Keith's new single "Don't Let the Old Man In" is featured in the new Clint Eastwood movie The Mule. "We will continue into 2019 with Waterloo Revival's 'Wonder Woman,'" says VP/Promo Rick Moxley, "and rounding out Q1 will be new selections from Krystal Keith's EP Boulder as well as from Lance Carpenter."

Stoney Creek

Jimmie Allen will follow his multi-week debut No. 1 "Best Shot" with a second single in early January. Randy Houser continues to move with the debut "What Whiskey Does" from Magnolia, available Jan. 11. Also look for Houser's his feature narrative film Magnolia out soon. "Walker McGuire's new single 'Growin' Up' is showing excellent live and online results and continues to grow week to week," says SVP/Promotion Carson James. "And get ready for the most talked about band out of Nashville that nobody's seen – King Calaway, coming in early 2019!"

Triple Tigers

"Our plan is to continue focusing on what's working," states SVP/Promo Kevin Herring. That includes Scotty McCreery's "This Is It," the follow-up to his No. 1 "Five More Minutes." McCreery is in the middle of his first headlining tour. Russell Dickerson's third single "Every Little Thing" continues to walk the path of his previous chart-toppers, while he too preps for a co-headlining tour with Carly Pearce, followed by a 40+ date tour opening for Thomas Rhett.

Tyler Rich

Valory

Speaking of, Thomas Rhett rounds out his platinum Life Changes with "Sixteen," the fifth single from this project, following four No. 1s from the same album. TR will deliver new music in Q1 and cross the country next year on the Very Hot Summer Tour. Tyler Rich continues his journey up the chart with "The Difference," while also writing and recording new music. Justin Moore honors fallen soldiers with "The Ones That Didn't Make It Back Home," the first single from a forthcoming album he just finished recording. Fresh off another USO tour, Eli Young Band's "Love Ain't" is working its way up the chart. Next year is the 20th anniversary of EYB, with lots of surprises coming in support of this. Brantley Gilbert pairs with Lindsay Ell on his new single "What Happens In A Small Town." "The duet features a blend of their unique voices and Lindsay's phenomenal guitar playing," says VP/Promotion & Marketing Chris Palmer. "The song was just shipped and is going for adds Jan. 14."

WAR

Ashley McBryde will deliver "Girl Goin' Nowhere" Jan. 14. "A few years ago in school, one of Ashley's teachers suggested the Arkansas singer consider a second career choice," says National Dir./Radio & Streaming James Marsh. "Those misguided words of wisdom only served to fuel her fire." Find McBryde this winter opening select dates for George Strait, including Super Bowl weekend in Sin City. Dan + Shay spent 2018 logging No. 1s "Tequila" and "Speechless." A third single is expected in Q1. Next year you'll find them on their headlining tour with Morgan Evans. They'll also take their show to Europe and ring in the new year on Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve With Ryan Seacrest. "Also coming early next year, Chris Janson will return with a headlining tour and an uptempo barn-burner that will leave you saying, 'Damn it, he's done it again,'" says Marsh.

Warrior

"Jessica Meuse is our focus," says Pres. Jimmy Ervin, who reports Meuse has visited more than 50 stations on radio tour and plans to continue on the road supporting her album Halfhearted. "She's had more than 1 million views of her 'Thank God It Didn't Work' lyric video on Facebook and is also also enjoying support from the film community, having received three separate festival awards this year," he says. Additionally, Meuse continues raising awareness about domestic violence, cyber bullying and St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

WEA

Team WEA will continue working Michael Ray's "One That Got Away" and Kenny Chesney's "Better Boat" as he launches his Songs For The Saints Tour. After having a 15-week No. 1 single in Australia with "Day Drunk," Morgan Evans has charted the single here in the States. "Look for this single to be big based on the early consumption numbers we are seeing plus the international success of the single," says National Dir./Radio & Streaming Adrian Michaels. "He is proving that country is global." Devin Dawson will take the momentum from his breakthrough year into 2019 with the recently released "Dark Horse." Look for Dawson on the road in the US, Europe and Australia in the new year.

Morgan Evans

Wheelhouse

Granger Smith continues to climb with "You're In It" as he hits the road January through March with Kane Brown on his Live Forever Tour. "Runaway June's 'Buy My Own Drink' is proving to be just the right elixir for all the single ladies (and married ones too)," says VP/Promotion Ken Tucker. "The talented trio will travel coast to coast on Carrie Underwood's The Cry Pretty Tour 360 beginning in May." LoCash's "Feels Like A Party" is a taste of their upcoming Wheelhouse debut album, expected in the first quarter. "Meanwhile, early 2019 will bring an exciting new addition to the Wheelhouse family," teases Tucker. "Stay tuned!"

WMN

Brett Eldredge wrapped 2018 alongside a 12-piece orchestra for the multi-city Glow Live Christmas Tour in support of his Christmas album Glow Deluxe. As current single "Love Someone" climbs, Eldredge readies new music for 2019. Cole Swindell's "Love You Too Late" from his No. 1 album All Of It is the follow-up to No. 1 "Break Up In The End." This month he wrapped the second leg of his A Reason To Drink ... Another Tour featuring Dustin Lynch and Lauren Alaina. Cody Johnson's "On My Way To You" is Top 30 and climbing. "Cody's built-in fan base keeps him busy selling out venues from coast to coast every week," says National Dir./Radio & Streaming Katie Bright. "You can catch him on several of his own sold-out dates in early 2019 and on the Justin Moore tour." Johnson's Ain't Nothin' To It is out Jan. 18. RaeLynn is back at Country radio with "Tailgate," written with FGL's Tyler Hubbard, Corey Crowder (both of whom served as producers on the track) and Canaan Smith. And look for new music from Hunter Hayes in Q1. CAC
