September 7, 2021, Issue 772

Power Gold Power Surge

The latest semi-annual Country Aircheck Power Gold Top 100 reveals some of the greatest upheaval the list has ever seen. With a bumper crop of songs transitioning from recurrent to gold status, nearly a quarter of the list are new entries. While 24 is not the most debuts the list has ever seen (2014 holds the record with 39), the near-total overhaul among the top 10 is unprecedented, with seven new titles in that range, including a debut at No. 1.

The airplay pause on Morgan Wallen by most stations earlier this year is no longer affecting his place in music libraries. While most of his releases are still classified as recurrences, the one that has moved to gold debuted as the most-played title on the list. In addition to this being Wallen's first appearance on the PG100, four other artists make their debut: Jimmie Allen (No. 29), Russell Dickerson (Nos. 6 & 56), Chris Lane (No. 62) and Matt Stell (No. 44).

The debut of "Whiskey Glasses" at No. 1 was fueled largely by its consensus among stations. It is the only title that ranks among the top five power golds for each of the three major group owners. Other marked differences between groups can be seen with Kenny Chesney: He has the No. 2 and 3 positions among iHeart stations while only landing one song in the top 10 among the other groups. Both Florida Georgia Line's "Cruise" and Zac Brown Band's "Chicken Fried" are top 10 for Cumulus, but fail to make the top 20 with the other groups. See how the Top 20 Power Golds fared on the ownership breakout chart on page 10.

September 11: Not Forgotten

Twenty years ago this Saturday (9/11), almost 3,000 people were killed and thousands more injured by terrorists who hijacked four airliners and attacked the World Trade Center in New York City and the Pentagon in Washington, DC; passengers forced one plane to crash near Shanksville, PA. While the milestone falls on a Saturday when many Country stations are voice-tracked or running syndication, Country Aircheck reached out to programmers to find out how they are handling the remembrance on-air.

"It's a weekend, yes, but radio doesn't stop on the weekends, and we are only 90 miles from New York City, so we will be remembering and saluting the heroes of 9/11 all week," Beasley WXTU/Philadelphia PD Mark Razz says. "We don't want to relive the day, but we will take a quieter and more respectful tone with the theme of 'pause and remember' as we reflect." Razz intends to utilize production pieces and imaging, steer away from war-related topics, and focus on saluting heroes. The station staff will visit multiple firehouses in the listening area throughout the week to talk to them about their jobs and deliver refreshments. "We'll run these segments every morning on The Andie Summers Show leading up to Saturday," explains Razz. Among the stops will be the Garden of Reflection in Yardley, PA, a local 9/11 memorial park.

Nate Deaton

Empire KRTY/San Jose GM Nate Deaton will also have his morning show paying tribute this week. "Gary Scott Thomas and Julie Stevens, who were both on-air at the time of the attacks, will share their reflections on Friday (9/10)," states Deaton. He will also program patriotic songs throughout the week with emphasis on Saturday's logs, including showcasing Lee Greenwood's "God Bless The USA." Silverfish Media nationally syndicated Big D & Bubba Exec. Prod. Patrick Thomas notes, "The three of us were together on-air live that morning [of Sept. 11, 2001], and we will reminisce." And, Cox Country Format Leader & Country KKBQ/Houston OM/PD Johnny Chiang says all Cox morning shows "will be devoting content time over the week to the matter, as well." Chiang says Cox stations are also producing custom imaging to mark the anniversary.

In addition to on-air elements like imaging and discussion, ADX WYCT/Pensacola PD/ morning host Brent Lane is spearheading the station's participation in Freedom Quest '21: Indivisible, a family-friendly event featuring patriotic speakers and music. The day will honor the memory of the 2,977 who died on Sept. 11, 2001 as well as more than 7,000 military members who have died in response to the attack and the more than 30,000 military personnel who have taken their own lives in the past 20 years.

Johnny Chiang

Brent Lane

Nationally, Audacy will host its Stars & Strings concert at The Rooftop at Pier 17 in New York City with performances by Darius Brice, Zac Brown, Chris Young, Lee Brice and more. The event honors first responders and their families with a portion of proceeds benefiting 9/11 Day, a nonprofit with the goal of inspiring 100 million good deeds in remembrance of and tribute to the 20th anniversary.

The Grand Ole Opry and Circle Network have teamed with Wounded Warrior Project for a daylong network takeover featuring stories from veterans and their families and friends, as well as two primetime specials with performances by Brad Paisley, Little Big Town, Trisha Yearwood, Jimmie Allen and others from the stage of the Grand Ole Opry House, Ground Zero, the Pentagon and Shanksville. "The country community played an integral role in the healing process in the aftermath of 9/11 as it offered comfort through heartfelt lyrics and messages

OFF THE RECORD

An Off The Record conversation with Big Loud's Ashland Craft:

The biggest takeaway from the pandemic was learning how to adapt and overcome situations out of my control. Also figuring out the best way to reach the outside world when you're not physically able to be in it. After touring for so long, that was a big adjustment.

Although I'm not the biggest social media buff, I definitely try to post things that are real-life for me. I don't ever want to be larger-than-life ... I want to be somebody who could be your best friend, like if you both just met at a bar and had a drink together. During the pandemic, I've learned to embrace social media: replying to great comments, doing livestreams and staying connected as much as I can. I have a newfound appreciation for being able to connect that way.

The most prominent radio station I can remember listening to was 92.5 [WESC/Greenville, SC]. That was the classic Country station and played all the throwback songs. We had it on all the time.

When I was around 21, my local radio station 100.5 [WSSL/Greenville] played a clip of me singing a song that I had just released called "In Between." Hearing my voice in that interview and listening to myself singing on the radio was crazy. That was the first song I'd written in Nashville, and I just remember thinking about what it was going to be like when I had an actual song out there. I'll never forget that feeling.

Travelin' Kind is a compilation of songs that felt very relevant to who I was, who I am and who I will be for the next few years (at least!). It's about heartbreak, leaving and life after all of that. It's also about being young, living life and figuring it all out.

I recently went to play Whiskey Jam at an off-roading park. It was a Brantley Gilbert round, and during a break, Tori — my fiddle player — and I got a little too excited on a side-by-side. We were riding, tried to cut a donut ... and definitely flipped it. Major fail.

I wish I'd written Kenny Chesney's "Don't Happen Twice." That one takes me back to my earlier years of country music. I was obsessed with Kenny; my mom and aunts were, too. He was my first country music concert and all I heard on the radio for a long time. "Don't Happen Twice" gives me that reminiscent, young feeling; you only have the moment you're in. Make the best of it.

The one that we're covering right now on tour, "You Should Probably Leave," by Chris Stapleton is my current radio pick. It's so familiar, and it's kind of a throwback, but it's also a little modern. A nice balance.

Schitt's Creek and New Girl are my favorite shows to binge.

ASHLAND CRAFT

and helped bring those who were suffering together through the power of music," says Circle Network GM Drew Reifenger. "We couldn't be [prouder] to partner with Wounded Warrior Project to bring the community together to remember all those lost and commemorate our many heroes."

For those still seeking remembrance programming, ABC News Radio is providing an hour-long special anchored by correspondent Aaron Katersky, which will be made available mid-week for affiliates to air on-demand. The special will also be available as an episode of the ABC News Radio Specials podcast, and on Sept. 11, ABC News Radio will provide live-anchored coverage of the annual commemoration ceremony. And, Bentztown has produced three promos that honor and remember those who lost their lives during the terrorist attacks and is making those available free of charge to stations in all market sizes and of all formats. The three free promos can be downloaded through Sept. 10 here.

Chart Chat

Congratulations to Luke Bryan, Royce Risser, Bobby Young, David Friedman, Chris Schuler and the Capitol promotion team on holding a second week at No. 1 with "Waves." Bryan has now spent a total of 45 weeks at No. 1 over his chart career. Songwriters are Chase McGill, Ryan Hurd and Zach Crowell.

Luke Bryan

With "If I Didn't Love You" cracking the top 10, it becomes the fifth top 10 collaboration for Carrie Underwood, who also appeared on 2009's cover of "I Told You So" (with Randy Travis), 2011's "Remind Me" (Brad Paisley), 2014's "Somethin' Bad" (Miranda Lambert) and 2017's "The Fighter" (Keith Urban). Jason Aldean is right behind her, with this becoming his fourth top 10 collab, following 2010's "Don't You Wanna Stay" (Kelly Clarkson), 2012's "The Only Way I Know" (Bryan and Eric Church) and 2018's "Drowns The Whiskey" (Lambert).

Finally, kudos to Stacy Blythe and the Big Loud team for landing Morgan Wallen atop this week's Add Board with "Sand In My Boots." With a holiday-weekend dampened 15 adds, this is

This Top 100 Power Gold is culled from Mediabase 24/7 and music airplay information from the Country Aircheck/Mediabase reporting panel for the week of July 25-31, 2021. Here's the Top 10, with debuts marked with an asterisk:

1. Morgan Wallen/Whiskey Glasses*
2. Sam Hunt/Body Like A Back Road
3. Kenny Chesney/Get Along
4. Darius Rucker/Wagon Wheel
5. Eli Young Band/Love Ain't*
6. Russell Dickerson/Blue Tacoma*
7. Luke Combs/She Got The Best Of Me*
8. Old Dominion/Hotel Key*
9. Chris Janson/Good Vibes*
10. Jason Aldean/Girl Like You*

Jason Aldean remains the top artist with eight titles on the list, though he has one less title than he did six months ago. As Luke Combs' string of No. 1 hits continues to increase, and those titles in turn become gold, his presence on the list is rapidly growing – from three titles a year ago, to four six months ago, to six now. That puts Combs in a second-place tie with Florida Georgia Line, while seven artists each placed four titles on the list.

Matt Stell

Darius Rucker's "Wagon Wheel" remains the model of Power Gold consistency. Since it debuted on the list six years ago, it has never ranked outside of the top five. The glut of high debuts pushes "Chicken Fried" down to No. 16, the first time it has ever finished outside of the top ten. The Zac Brown Band standard is also one of eight songs on the list that has the unique status of having appeared on every single list for the past decade. The other seven high endurance titles are: Carrie Underwood's "Before He Cheats," Keith Urban's "Somebody Like You," Rascal Flatts'

Barrel Boy Celebrates 15 Years

KNIX/Phoenix mascot extraordinaire “Barrel Boy” recently celebrated his 15th anniversary. What started as “punishment” for showing up hungover at a concert setup has evolved into one of the station’s most recognizable features.

From his first moments in his now-famous barrel and bowling shoes, fans at events flocked to take pictures with Barrel Boy. Since then, Barrel’s hung out with celebrities, been featured on American Idol, became a viral sensation at the NFL’s Super Bowl Media Day, and perhaps the biggest feather in his cap ... err ... barrel, is one very special friendship with Austin Dorcey, a special needs child who invited Barrel Boy to his birthday party six years ago and is still his biggest fan. Congratulate Barrel Boy here.

“Life Is A Highway,” Kenny Chesney’s “I Go Back,” Dierks Bentley’s “What Was I Thinkin’,” Billy Currington’s “Good Directions” and Tim McGraw’s “Something Like That.” The latter also holds the distinction as the oldest title on the list and the only title remaining from the ‘90s; it and McGraw’s “Where The Green Grass Grows” had been the last two ‘90s holdouts on the previous two lists. Now, Urban’s “Somebody Like You,” released in 2002, ranks as the second-oldest title.

The Summer 2021 PG100 is composed of 35 male artists with 75 songs and four women with six songs. By comparison, in January there were 29 male artists with 70 songs and four women with nine songs. KACEY MUSGRAVES Star-Crossed (Interscope/UMGN)

Musgraves' fourth studio album found her collaborating once again with co-producers and writers Ian Fitchuk and Daniel Tashian. The 15-song collection was recorded in Nashville earlier this year in just under three weeks and releases the same day as Star-Crossed: The Film, starring Musgraves, premieres on Paramount+.

MITCHELL TENPENNY Midtown Diaries

(Riser House/Columbia)

Co-produced alongside Jordan M. Schmidt, the project contains eight songs all co-written by Tenpenny, including current single "Truth About You."

JON RANDALL (—)

The nine-track collection is Randall's first solo album in 15 years and follows his collaboration with Miranda Lambert and Jack Ingram, The Marfa Tapes. Watch the album trailer here.
