UMG Takes Turkey Bowl XV; Capitol Gobbles Trophy

The 15th Annual Turkey Bowl was played Saturday in Nashville, with UMG prevailing for the 12th year of the music business football festival. Clad in pink jerseys -- insert own joke here -- UMG bested EMI Christian Music Group 21-8 in the championship game.

In the first round, EMI Christian Music Group beat SESAC, Capitol edged Sony BMG (7-6), UMG beat SOLID (24-2) and William Morris got a bye. To get into the finals, EMICMG beat Capitol (26-20) and UMG defeated William Morris (28-6).

UMG tour press specialist Kelly Russell was named MVP after dominating from her defensive tackle position. She registered over 10 sacks in the tourney, including big plays during a couple goal-line stands in the final game.

UMG suffered two key injuries: UMG A&R staffer Brian Wright broke his clavicle and MCA VP/Promotion Royce Risser suffered torn rib cartilage. Whined Risser on Monday, “If I sneeze I pass out from pain. That simple. I must not sneeze!”

Hot Air: The intense rivalry ratcheted up another notch when the Turkey Bowl trophy was unavailable for the traditional post-game presentation. Acting on a tip, Country Aircheck deployed its Wi-Fi scanners and intercepted an intra-office email containing this photo (right) of Capitol staffers posing with the hardware. Upon further investigation, CA has learned that a Capitol staffer snatched the trophy from the home of UMG’s Katie Dean, reportedly during an...
“Two Pink Lines” is a Hit!

Capitol Nashville newcomer Eric Church’s latest single “Two Pink Lines” continues to win over fans and generate rave reviews from national critics, with USA Today saying, “Two Pink Lines just may be the most thrilling country song ever written about a pregnancy scare—...a poignant mix of fear, anxious energy and anticipation”. Rolling Stone Magazine gives Sinners Like Me, three and half stars out of four! By year’s end, Eric will have performed in front of over a half a million fans opening for both Brad Paisley and Rascal Flatts. Eric is currently finishing up a run of packed club dates, on his Me & Myself Tour. Church wraps up the year opening for the legendary Bob Seger in Cincinnati, OH (11/25), St. Paul/Minneapolis, MN (11/28), Chicago, IL (11/30), Kansas City, MO (12/02), St. Louis, MO (12/04), Nashville, TN (12/09), Louisville, KY (12/12), Pittsburgh, PA (12/14) and Cleveland, OH. Dierks Bentley - Another Soaring Year in 2006

The New York Times says, “He’s got about as much momentum as anyone in the business.” The Chicago Tribune claims, “Bentley is the next guy on deck for superstar status in the genre.” It’s been another stellar year for the Phoenix native. He received his first Male Vocalist of the Year nomination at both the ACM Awards and the CMA Awards this year. He has not only logged thousands of miles this year but he has logged a few #1’s as well – a #1 selling album (Long Trip Alone), two #1 singles (“Settle For A Slowdown” and “Every Mile A Memory,” a #1 video (“Every Mile A Memory”).
