Airchecking COU In The ATL

The holidays didn’t quite start out the way the folks at ABC Radio/Atlanta Country combo WKHX (Kicks 101) & WYAY (The Eagle) had envisioned. Clear Channel stuck a lump of coal in their stocking on Dec. 18 with its launch of Country WUBL (94.9, The Bull). Now that the bovine is 21 days old, we thought we’d take a look at the current Atlanta Country landscape.

WKHX & WYAY OM/PD Mark Richards plays it pretty close to the vest when talking about marketing, contesting or changes his stations have made since the Bull’s launch. In fact, Richards doesn’t even actually acknowledge the Bull’s existence. Waxing as eloquently as any politician we’ve ever heard, when asked about programming alterations Richards says, “We have a tremendous history of knowing what Country listeners in this market want. We also know that with success, companies try competing with our brands. There are now six Country signals in and around the Atlanta metro. Without question, we continue to tweak our stations based on good research and market feedback.”

Asked if he’s heard changes from his competitors in the last 21 days, CC/RVPP and Atlanta OM and WUBL PD Clay Hunnicutt said tersely, “Yeah -- they’ve started using our ‘Biggest Hits, Biggest Stars’ [positioner] and they’ve signed every countdown show they could find.”

WKHX’s website and on-air liners do indeed proclaim, “Today’s Country is … The Biggest Hits from the Biggest Stars.” Richards acknowledges that WKHX has been using “Today’s Country” as it’s primary positioner for over three years but adds, “We’ve been using ‘Biggest Hits from the Biggest Stars’ in our outdoor and on-air for over a year.”

As for countdown shows, Richards says, “We put Jeff Foxworthy’s countdown on Eagle when we added more currents to it in November. We love having hometown Foxworthy on the team.”

The Bull has been running jockless -- but not commercial free -- since its debut. Hunnicutt says he doesn’t have a firm target date for adding air talent, but hopes to unveil his personalities in the next month or so. The Bull is running three spot breaks an hour in morning drive and two everywhere else; usually with four spots per break. Hunnicut says of the Bull’s early marketing efforts. “We’re doing TV right now, letting the masses know we’re around, and then the marketing will become much more focused.”

Country Aircheck will be closed Monday, Jan. 15 in observance of the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday. All Country Aircheck Mediabase monitored reporters can submit station adds via www.airplayaddboard.com any time from this Thursday (1/11) until 3pm ET/Noon PT on Tuesday, Jan. 16. Country Aircheck non-monitored Activator reporters may submit their full reports any time during that same time frame. The Country Aircheck Music Edition will be delivered Tuesday evening, Jan. 16.

Commenting on his combo’s marketing, Richards stated, “In my six years in the market, Kicks and Eagle have marketed as well as anyone. We compete for listeners with all competitors in Atlanta and that requires good marketing. Certainly we are doing more this year… There have been new formats introduced every year here, and, in the end, heritage means a lot in Atlanta. Kicks and Eagle are very strong brands.”

Hang on for what promises to be a wild ride. Atlanta is a huge advertising market and you can be sure these two heavyweights will be slugging it out. Still to come: Citadel is expected to close on its purchase of ABC Radio in late May.

Cumulus Selects Mediabase; Will Report Adds

Mediabase and Cumulus Media have reached an agreement designating Mediabase as the exclusive provider of music monitoring information to all Cumulus-owned music formatted radio stations nationwide. As part of the pact, Cumulus stations will begin reporting weekly playlist adds exclusively to Mediabase. Those adds will be reflected exclusively in each week’s Country Aircheck Music Edition.

Mediabase President and Premiere Radio Exec. VP Rich Meyer commented, “Mediabase is proud to have been selected by the elite group of programmers at Cumulus to provide our airplay data on an exclusive basis. We’re honored to have gained their trust with such important, tactical information and look forward to serving them for many years to come.”

The new agreement comes almost exactly one year after Cumulus ceased reporting adds to trade publications. Speaking of the new agreement, Cumulus Exec. VP John Dickey stated, “As charts have fragmented, it became clear to us that Mediabase was emerging as the most significant source for airplay information. Our programming team looks forward to using this great resource.”

This is the latest in exclusive arrangements Mediabase has forged with broadcast groups, including Emmis, Nextmedia, Radio One and its parent company, Clear Channel.

WFUS/Tampa morning personality Skip Mahaffey has been chosen as the 2006 Tampa FBI Director’s Community Leadership Award recipient. Each year, the FBI’s 56 field offices nominate one person or group to receive this accolade, which honors individuals and organizations for their efforts in combating crime, terrorism, drugs and violence in America. FBI Special Agent in Charge Carl Whitehead said, “Skip is a role model of citizen’s involvement as one who cares very deeply about the community in which he lives. We are very fortunate to have Skip working with us to keep the community safe.”

Mahaffey’s efforts include a weekly show segment called “Good Kid of the Week,” distributing more than 1,000 bicycle helmets to Tampa Bay Area children to promote bicycle safety and “Skip’s Kids,” a program for educating underprivileged youths on how to avoid becoming victims of crime and providing them recreational trips to area attractions.
