Fall Book Pick Me Up

With the Fall 2008 Arbitron starting in just 10 days, we thought a few tips for those last-minute station check-ups would come in handy. So we asked a couple pros for ideas, starting with consultant Joel Raab (215-750-6868):

• Have you trimmed every ounce of fat (while keeping the meat) from air talent performances?
• Scour your imaging; update and remove old pieces. You might be amazed to see some with the old slogan might still be there in the system.
• How does your internet stream sound? Are you as proud of it as you are your terrestrial station?
• Compare research scores from your station vs. a competitor’s for a given time period. Don’t have research? Use Mediabase or BDS to compare. Who’s stronger?
• How’s the mix? Is there a variety of sound within the mix?
• Does the writing of your imaging really connect with the core? Or, are you using radio-speak?

Here’s more from Rusty Walker & Associates VP/Consulting Bob Glasco (480-607-7149):
• Challenge yourself to find ways to make everything you do fresh for your listener and your staff.

THE AIR GUARD PRESENTS

Laura Bryna

THE AIR GUARD FINDS ITS VOICE

• The Air Guard has selected Laura Bryna to serve as the ‘voice’ of the new Air Guard advertising campaign.

• Laura’s debut album “Trying To Be Me” will be reissued on September 2nd and features the song “Hometown Heroes,” a tribute to the men and women of the Air Guard.

• Laura will be making concert appearances, signing autographs and talking with fans and members of the Air Guard at numerous Air Guard events and units across the country over the next twelve months.

• The Air Guard’s national campaign will include a mix of print, radio, television, online and public relations.

Emerson Drive To Valory

Valory Music Co. has reached an agreement with Midas Records and Emerson Drive in which it will handle all promotion, sales, marketing, production, publicity and distribution for the group. The move reunites Emerson Drive with Valory Pres. Scott Borchetta, with whom they worked at DreamWorks. “Emerson Drive is one of the hardest working bands anywhere in the world and their success over the last year, including their Grammy nomination and their first No. 1 single, is going to help propel them to the next level at Country radio and with the fans,” Borchetta says. Their first Midas/Valory single is expected mid-November with an album following early next year.

CCMAs Honor Radio

The 2008 Canadian Country Music Awards took place today in Winnipeg, with Manitoba group Doc Walker taking home five awards. Terri Clark hosted the show, but no major Nashville artists were honored in artist categories. Industry and radio awards include:

- Major Market Station: CJJR-FM/Vancouver, BC
- Secondary Market: CICX-FM/Orillia, ON
- Program or Special: Canadian Coast To Coast - CJVR-FM
- Additional, Emerson Drive drummer Mike Melancon, keyboardist Dale Wallace and fiddler David Pichette were all recognized for their instruments at the All-Star Band Awards Sept. 6. Broadcaster Wes Montgomery was inducted into the Hall of Fame. Full winners list at www.ccma.org.

Jimmy Wayne Believes

Valory’s Jimmy Wayne is enjoying his second week at No. 1 with “Do You Believe Me Now,” but it almost didn’t happen. As he told Country Aircheck’s Lon Helton on Westwood One’s CMT Country Countdown USA, great songs are like an Old West gold strike – life changing ... and nearly impossible to keep quiet.

- “I was writing with Joe West and Dave Pahanish and we didn’t come up with anything,” Wayne explains. “So I was about to leave, when Joe said, ‘Do you have a second to listen to a song we wrote?’ At the time I didn’t have a song in the charts, so I knew I was at the bottom of the pile for hearing the best songs from other writers. It’s the pecking order. So I listened... and I didn’t overreact. I’ve learned my lesson, because if you overreact, the song could get pitched out from under you. I didn’t say nothing. I just thought to myself, ‘Wow!’
- “I was subdued, and said ‘Joe, mind if I have a copy of this?’ A couple days later I said, ‘Joe, do you mind if I put my vocal on it?’ I told Joe not to play it for anybody, including his publisher. A month-and-a-half later, I walked into Scott Borchetta’s office and played it for him. That was the minute my life changed. [He said], ‘Congratulations, Jimmy. ‘Do You Believe Me Now’ will be your first single.’

“Finally [the writers] played it for their publisher. Lon, I’m going to tell you something I haven’t told anyone: His publisher, after we recorded and mastered the song, went to another big star and pitched it. What the publisher didn’t know was a friend of mine was in the office of the artist he was pitching, and texted me, ‘They’re pitching your song here.’ So I called them right away and said, ‘Tell the guy who’s pitching you that song to stop. That’s my song. I’ve already recorded it.’ And there was a moment of silence. No one said anything. So you gotta be careful.

“Whatever happened to songs being on hold? It means, ‘Hold your breath. Don’t talk about ‘em.’”

Artist News

A screening of Meet Glen Campbell: A Documentary will be held at the Country Music Hall Of Fame and Museum Sept. 20 followed by a Q&A session with Campbell as part of the Americana Music Festival and Conference. That evening, Jim Lauderdale, Raul Malo, Chuck Mead and more will pay tribute to Campbell with a concert at the Cannery Ballroom.

Wynonna fans can create and upload short videos explaining “Why I Should Meet Wy” to www.my opry.com. The winner will join Wynonna backstage at her Oct. 4 Opry performance.

Marty Stuart will debut The Marty Stuart Show Sunday nights in November on RFD-TV. His Fabulous Superlatives and Connie Smith will be featured. The first of 26 30-minute music-filled episodes, hosted and produced by Stuart, begins production this month in Nashville. Serving as announcer and sidekick will be WSM-AM/Nashville evening personality Eddie Stubbs.

Black River’s Jeff Bates will perform as part of the pre-race festivities at NASCAR’S Sprint Cup Series Pep Boys Auto 500 at the Atlanta Motor Speedway Oct. 26.

Phil Vassar re-recorded “Prayer Of A Common Man” with the Fisk University Jubilee Singers and released it exclusively to Rhapsody. A portion of proceeds for each song purchased before the end of the year will be donated to Feeding America (formerly known as America’s Second Harvest).

Stephen Cochran has released “When A Hero Falls” to radio for the upcoming anniversary of 9/11. Cochran, who served as a Marine in Afghanistan, was inspired to write the song by the death of his friend, Marine Cpl. Ron Payne. Actor Gary Sinise will also honor Cochran, along with other wounded veterans, Sept. 12 in Dallas. Lastly, Cochran is headed to Iraq and Afghanistan Dec. 28- Jan. 14 with Armed Forces Entertainment.

Travis Tritt will perform a free post-game concert Sept. 21 following the Atlanta Braves final home game of the season.

Hushabye Baby: Lullaby Renditions of Johnny Cash will be released Nov. 4 with George Strait and Carrie Underwood to follow Nov. 18.

John Michael Montgomery’s CD release party for Time Flies will be held Oct. 4 at the Kentucky Music Hall Of Fame and serve as the unveiling of the artist’s exhibit in the KMFOF. Admission is $5 and allows fans to purchase the album before it’s Oct. 14 street date.

Johnny Cash at Folsom Prison: Legacy Edition has been released with footage from Cash’s legendary performance and recording of At Folsom Prison made Jan. 1968.

*HEAR'S WHAT PROGRAMMERS ARE SAYING ABOUT DRIVE AWAY...

This will be the song that propels Bluefield into superstardom!!! They sound better than ever (the pain in Rick's voice - WOW!) and the song is FANTASTIC!!

- Jessie Roberts, MD  WGGY

I love 'Drive Away' and I am adding it!

- Paul Neumann, PD  KIXZ

Bluefield has a fresh unique sound, and 'Drive Away' is one of those songs that stands out from the crowd.

- Kim Layton, MD  WSSL

'Drive Away' is a real life song that our listeners can relate to. I was soooo pleased when I heard how incredible it sounds on the air! My hat’s off to the gang at the all new Country Thunder!!

- Brian Hatfield, APD  WKSF
