Country’s Elite Eight

Country has long been a star-driven format, but would it surprise you to learn that the eight most-played artists represent 27% of all airplay on Country stations? And it gets even more concentrated as you go down the list: The top 10 airplay acts represent 33% of all spins, the top 20 provide 55% and the top 30 comprise a whopping 69% of all Country airplay this year.

For those wondering how that compares to other formats:
- Hot AC: top 8, 25%; top 10, 29%, top 20 45%; and, top 30, 56%.
- AC: top 8, 17%; top 10, 20%; top 20, 33%; and, top 30, 42%.
- Top 40: top 8, 30%; top 10, 35%; top 20, 54%; and, top 30, 66%.

Back to Country, our top 200 airplay artists amassed 9,848,219 spins from Jan. 1 to Aug. 18, 2012, according to Mediabase 24/7. Only eight artists have garnered more than 300,000 spins during that time frame, for a total of 2,683,083 plays. Kenny Chesney leads the pack with 405,699 plays, with Toby Keith placing second. Rounding out the Top 8 are the Zac Brown Band, Blake Shelton, Keith Urban, Tim McGraw, Jason Aldean and Rascal Flatts.

Tours: The Sun Goes Down

Kenny Chesney and Tim McGraw’s Brothers Of The Sun 23-stadium summer tour came to a record-breaking conclusion over the weekend, playing two shows in front of 111,209 fans at Gillette Stadium in Foxboro, MA. Country Aircheck enlisted a pair of roving reporters for the tour’s finale: WKLB/Boston’s Ginny Rogers and WCTK/Providence’s Bob Walker.

MERRY "ROUND
“Brothers Of The Sun is done,” says Walker. “I live less than 20 miles from Gillette, and it took me three hours to get from my driveway to parking; an absolute madhouse. Kenny hit the stage on Saturday night (8/25) sporting an ‘83-Welkah’ shirt, paying homage to the New England Patriots No. 83 Wes Welker and our New England accent. He also christened a new name for the regulars who come back to Gillette Stadium time and time again: ‘No Shoes Nation.’ Kenny announced he has now played nine times at Gillette, more than any other venue.

“Before the show, Tim McGraw and I were talking baseball and he told me he’d be wearing his father’s (Tug McGraw) World Series ring onstage. That was the coolest thing I had ever heard from an artist.

But everyone agrees the most magical moment was Faith Hill joining Tim onstage during his set. They attempted to sing I Need You together, but Faith choked up and couldn’t get the words out (video here). Gillette erupted in applause; throwing lots of love Faith’s way.”

Adds Rogers: “At the end of the song, Tim and Faith gave each other a nice, slow, big kiss for all the fans to see, which made the crowd go even crazier! She went to leave the stage, but Tim pulled her back and made her take a bow with him ... truly a special moment.

Kenny Chesney at Gillette Stadium
After the song, Grace thanked Kenny for his friendship and said, ‘Kenny I have a question for you,’ to which Kenny quickly answered, ‘I do’ to laughter in the crowd. Then he said, ‘Sorry, Matt’ to Grace’s fiancé (and drummer). Funny moment. Then Grace gave Kenny a signature Flying V guitar with a beach scene on the back, which she had painted.

MY TUNES: MUSIC THAT SHAPED MY LIFE

Florida Georgia Line’s Brian Kelley discusses his most influential songs, albums and concerts:

1. Garth Brooks’ Double Live: As a kid, I would sit in the back of our van and listen to this album over and over. It’s electric! You can truly feel the power of music in every song. I still crank it up on road trips.

2. John Michael Montgomery/Sold (The Grundy County Auction Incident): I loved this song. I still know every word.

3. Alabama/Reckless: This song is one of the best feel-good, fun songs released to this day. It doesn’t get much better than this.

4. Kenny Chesney, Poets & Pirates Tour, Nashville, 2008: Kenny is the real deal. There was nothing like being in a packed stadium full of people singing along to amazing songs. There is a reason he’s so successful. He is a true artist and performer.

5. Metallica/Enter Sandman: From note one, it’s on. This song rocks. I must admit that I blew a few speakers listening to this song back in the day.

- An “important” piece of music you just don’t get: Honestly, I haven’t got around to listening to much Bob Dylan, but hopefully I will one day.
- An album you played or listened to incessantly: Wiz Khalifa’s Rolling Papers. Every song is great!

Research: You Auto Know

Good news for car dealers: A new CMA 2012 Insiders Automobile Buying Habits Study indicates that nearly one in four (24%) of its sample of 13,000 online Country consumers aged 18+ intend to purchase a new vehicle in the next 12 months. That figure, extrapolated from online Country consumers (gathered from industry social networks and events) contrasts notably with figures from research firm Scarborough, whose estimates of potential car buyers among Country radio listeners is closer to 10%. The CMA study also indicates that 91% of those potential buyers will make their purchase through a dealership.

It’s widely known that Country fans are brand-loyal, and that extends to cars and trucks, too, with CMA survey respondents saying their first consideration will be the manufacturer of the vehicle they currently drive. Other top brands cited include Chevrolet, Ford, Dodge and Toyota.

The results indicate that a growing consideration of compact and mid-size SUVs as these consumers contemplate their next new vehicle purchase. And half of these prospective buyers are looking at hybrid or electric alternatives, especially the Ford and Chevrolet brands. The report says the three most critical buying criteria are, in order, safety, gas mileage and reliability.

Beer, Buns & Baseball

Not necessarily in that order, but that’s the general idea Wednesday (8/29) as Country Aircheck sponsors the Nashville Sounds’ final Music Industry Wednesday. The standing buy-one-ticket-get-one-free deal applies, but your fleet-fingered friends at CA are sweetening the pot. The first 200 industry types at the ballpark will also receive a free voucher for a beer and hot dog. That’s right, media types buying you food and drink. (Usually works the other way around, but you knew that already – being in the industry and all.) Just show the box office your approved industry ID – business card, laminate, liner notes, station shirt – grab a brew, a dog and a seat and enjoy the great American pastime. Take in the game, too. (We were talking about talking. What did you think?)

OFF THE RECORD: Lauren Alaina

1978/Interscope/Mercury’s Lauren Alaina puts an industry spin on the artist interview:

What station did you grow up listening to? WUSY/Chattanooga, TN.
Do you remember the first time you heard yourself on the radio? I was driving from Chattanooga to Nashville, listening to US 101 when I heard "Georgia Peaches." I started crying hysterically.
What is your go-to food stop? I’m terrible about wanting Waffle House after a show. Sometimes, after everyone goes to sleep on the bus, my driver and I Google the nearest WH, stop and eat.

What radio station visit will you never forget? One time at WOGI/Pittsburgh, I had to do a quick “shower” in the station’s bathroom, and they didn’t actually have a shower. I sang for the station and stayed to judge one of their local Idol contests on the air. They also had me do a weather report. I had so much fun I didn’t want to leave!

Which radio staffer made the biggest impression on you? I got to hang out with Anthony Allen. Now he’s in Nashville. But when he was in Wichita, we went to an arcade after my show. We played mini-golf, raced go-carts and hit the batting cages. I had a blast!

Which regional is the most interesting driver? Bruce Shindler! He is the worst driver in the world! Ha, ha!

Have you ever wanted to buy anything in SkyMall? Yes! Somehow I convince myself that I need everything in that catalog.

What question do you never want to answer again? Are you and Scotty McCreery dating?

Best wishes to Sonia Powell and Dan Horne on their marriage Saturday (8/25) in Los Angeles. Powell has designed many of the ads you’ve seen in Country Aircheck since its 2006 launch, and previously worked with several of us at Radio & Records. Congratulate Mrs. Horne here.

News & Notes

Heidi Newfield will headline WSIX/Nashville’s 15th Annual Buds-n-Suds Music Festival Sept. 15 at Losers Bar and Grill. Proceeds will benefit the Crohn’s Colitis Foundation of America (CCFA) Tennessee Chapter. Keith Anderson, Kelleigh Bannen, Jared Blake, Big Rock Show, El Camino, Dee Jay Silver and Johnny T will also perform.

The Hot Seat is offering a new web video feature called “Test Drive” free to stations. Each video offers exposure to artists with custom intros tailored to the station and a local car dealership. Test Drive launches Sept. 17, and artists will be rotated biweekly. See it here and contact Jason for details.

AIX Records will release Mark Chesnutt’s live 3D, Blu-Ray collection Your Room tomorrow (8/28). The Los Angeles performance includes 15 Chesnutt hits including “It’s A Little Too Late,” “Too Cold At Home,” “Bubba Shot The Jukebox,” “Going Through The Big D” and “Rollin’ With The Flow.”

SOLID’s second annual kickball tournament raised more than $2,000 for Soles 4 Souls. The top three teams were WME, Music Row Misfits and SESAC.

Country’s Elite Eight

The number of songs an artist has on the radio obviously impacts the spin count. Chesney leads this category as well, with 100 tunes getting at least one spin this year. (Song counts include album cuts and the aberrant Christmas play received by a few stations airing holiday tunes during the August heat wave.) Toby is next at 74. Then, it gets interesting. ZBB ranks third on the list in spins, with play from just 33 songs. More amazing, Aldean is seventh in spins with only 22 songs. The rest of the Top 8 shows Shelton with 38 tunes, Urban 41, McGraw 74 and the Flatts at 69.

Looking at the rest of the top 30 spin leaders, Taylor Swift is the first woman on the list, ranking – honest to God, I did not make this up or adjust in any way – No. 13! She’s followed by Miranda Lambert and Carrie Underwood at Nos. 14 and 15, respectively. Amazingly, they are the only solo female artists in the Top 30, underscoring this format’s dearth of female airplay. Their combined spins equal just 7% of all airplay. Adding the spins from female-voice acts Lady A, The Band Perry and Sugarland only takes you to 13% of the total spins. It’s also interesting to note that Taylor, Miranda and Carrie each only have about half of Chesney’s spin count.

A few caveats as you peruse the Top 30 Country total airplay artists’ list. Remember, this is all airplay. Total airplay is affected by career length, which is reflected by the number of songs in each rotational category. Having single releases (or not) during this period also impacts the total spins. But even with those caveats, it’s interesting to see that relative superstar newcomers ZBB, Blake Shelton and Jason Aldean are among the top 8, with Luke Bryan (9) and Lady Antebellum (10) in hot pursuit.
